Sex (and Love) in The City

"There is nothing wrong with sex or sexual desire, as long as it is expressed in a joyful and loving way that harms no one. We are all sexual beings, and our sexuality is unique to each of us. We should not allow anyone to make us feel guilty for what we think or feel. Instead, we should each be grateful for the gift that our heart expresses through our body."

Paul Gonyea
Senior Minister
The Spiritual Living Center of Atlanta

Meeting every Sunday
10 AM & 11:30 AM
The Richard Rich Auditorium
The Woodruff Arts Center
1280 Peachtree Street

For more information,
please visit:

www.SLC-Atlanta.org

new beginnings through new thought
SPIRITUAL LIVING CENTER of ATLANTA