

For men and women who wish to attract a partner the natural way -- through the Joy of Life

Inner Mate to Life Mate holds a unique key to help you attract a partner. Within these pages you will identify and contact your individual "Inner Mate." As you forge a positive relationship with this part of yourself, the Law of Attraction automatically comes into play to bring to you a partner in your physical world.

With deep insight, Nancy Davis demonstrates how we can transform our self-defeating habits, beliefs, and feelings to attract and enjoy a "significant other." Drawing on case studies from her years of hypnotherapy and relationship coaching, Davis illustrates how many people who long for a partner sabotage themselves. Through her ground-breaking work, she has enabled many people to move past the pain of loss and attract a loving relationship.

Her clients call NANCY DAVIS a "teacher for life." Nancy's extensive "life" teachings focus today on her work as a Relationship Coach and an Interfaith Minister. She is a graduate of New York City's New Seminary, where she was ordained as an Interfaith Minister in 2006. Nancy is a certified hypnotherapist from the Association of Research and Enlightenment. A graduate of the School for Inner Sense Development, her alternative healing work also includes Ro-Hun therapy.

Nancy is a skilled Voice Dialogue facilitator, having studied with the originators of that process. Nancy's Atlanta-based practice also includes work with kinesiology, shamanism, and universal life principles as they relate to finances, relationship, and all facets of prosperous living. Her audiobook on tape is titled, Healthy, Wealthy, and Wise: 11 Weeks, 11 Steps to Financial Health. Nancy is a motivational speaker who leads seminars around the globe.
