

The Reverend Paul Gonyea has been the Senior Minister of the Spiritual Living Center of Atlanta (SLCA) since 1999. He has been a student of Religious Science for over twenty years, and is a lifetime student of metaphysics and spirituality. He speaks regularly at the Rich Auditorium on Peachtree Street in Atlanta, Georgia, but also at other New Thought churches, conferences and seminars across the country. He was inducted into the Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. Board of Preachers at Morehouse College in 2002.

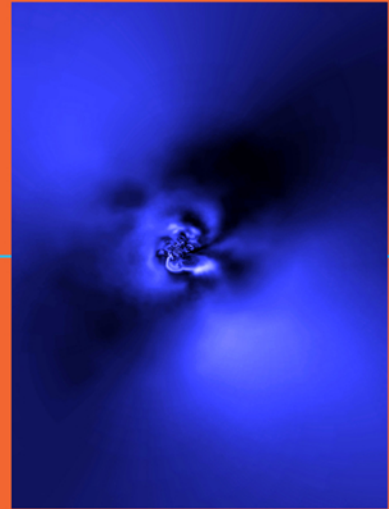

Paul's style is positive, intelligent and frequently irreverent. His passionate approach to the great Spiritual Truths that cross all religions shows a deep appreciation for the connection between all people and the Spirit of Life we all share. Believing that life and religion are too important to be taken seriously, he often refers to the SLCA as "church for people who don't like church, teaching non-denominational, non-Christianity." And when asked what religion he is, he usually answers with a smile: "the same religion as God."

Paul retired in 2005 as an International Captain for a major airline. Besides his spiritual practice, he loves motorcycling, skydiving and reading with a cat in his lap.
